

Abstract:

A search for scalar narrow resonances decaying into two photons in the mass range 65-600 GeV is performed using 20 1/fb of pp collision data collected at the LHC with the ATLAS detector at 8 TeV.

The Higgs boson of mass 125.9 GeV is treated as a background.

No significant evidence for an additional signal is observed.